

COMPANY PROFILE

NONKI Japanese Restaurant is a single proprietorship business established in 2004. It is owned and managed by Ms. Ligaya A. Machida, a Filipino married to Japanese. It has experienced remarkable growth since it was created which prompted the management to contemplate opening other outlets. Their secrets – fresh food, excellent service and culinary variety and atmosphere

With its first branch opened at the heart of Mandaue City, Cebu, NONKI Japanese Restaurant continues to attract customers by offering authentic Japanese dishes with a delectable menu that promise to delight every customer's taste buds. The food was nothing less than perfect, fresh and tasteful. Prices are reasonable and the menu is reader friendly with pictures and thorough description of menu choice.

Moreover, the restaurant's beautiful ambience with stunning décor creates such taste and class, a perfect place indeed for friends, family, couples and groups who want to unwind oneself. Along with its friendly and well-trained staff, NONKI Japanese Restaurant preserves its excellent service by making each dining experience a pleasant one.

At NONKI Japanese Restaurant, you'll taste the uniqueness of Japanese food and service.
